Work Experience

In-House Media Intern

HighTechXL, Eindhoven, The Netherlands

June 2024 - January 2025

- In-depth brainstorming about corporate brand identity with PR Representatives.
- Professional production of visual content for both online and physical mediums like websites, big screens at business conventions and displays that helped both HighTechXL as well as their startups reach their target audience.

Recycling & Sustainability Assistant

Northwest Missouri State University, Maryville, MO, United States

January 2026- May 2026

- Close collaboration with the University on how to improve student recycling behavior through media outlets like social media, announcements on the local radio channel, features on the university television show, and as part of my main project, a multimedia story that explains on-campus recycling in a comical but effective way.
- Assist the Office of Sustainability with on-campus sustainability events and initiatives.
